2022 Reading Recovery Teacher Leader Institute ~

The Teacher Leader Institute is required professional development for active, certified teacher leaders, and teacher leaders-in-training in the United States; Reading Recovery trainers, trainers-in-training, and site coordinators are also encouraged to attend the Institute.

Title: Focusing Our Lens: Advocacy, Agency, & Acceleration

Sessions Speakers to be featured at the 2022 Reading Recovery Teacher Leader Institute are:

- Mary Fried - is an author and a trainer of teacher leaders in the Reading Recovery Center at The Ohio State University. Trained by Marie Clay and Barbara Watson during the original 1984-1985 pilot study of Reading Recovery in the U.S., Mary has been actively engaged in teaching, presenting, conducting research, and writing about Reading Recovery for more than 25 years.
- Gay Su Pinnell - is Professor Emerita in the School of Teaching and Learning at The Ohio State University and a member of the Reading Hall of Fame.
- Rachael Gabriel - is an Associate Professor of Literacy Education at the University of Connecticut. She is author of more than fifty refereed articles, and author or editor of five books for literacy teachers, leaders and education researchers.
