The Reading Wars have recently hit the newsstands and social media again, so I wanted to share the following message from Reading Recovery. We have invested in this program for almost 30 years and seen great student successes - - two of my three children benefited from it when they were 1st grade students.

Brooke Beacom is our Reading Recovery Teacher Leader in the EUP. One focal point of her work is building district capacity by utilizing the expertise of our Reading Recovery teachers.

Reading Recovery IS NOT	✓ Reading Recovery IS
✦ Reading Recovery IS NOT a classroom program.	✦ Reading Recovery IS a one-to-one, early intervention for reading and writing.
✦ Reading Recovery IS NOT "Whole Language."	✦ Reading Recovery IS a short-term, evidence-based intervention for the lowest performing first grade literacy learners.
✦ Reading Recovery DOES NOT teach children to guess.	✦ Reading Recovery IS designed to work with any classroom literacy program.
✦ Reading Recovery IS NOT a published commercial curriculum.	✦ Reading Recovery DOES teach children to use phonics skills.
✦ Reading Recovery IS NOT a one-size-fits-all intervention.	✦ Reading Recovery DOES build on children's strengths and responds to individual learning differences.
✦ Reading Recovery IS NOT a long-term, remedial program.	✦ Reading Recovery DOES collect and report literacy assessment scores on every participating child.
