

Behavior Escalation Worksheet

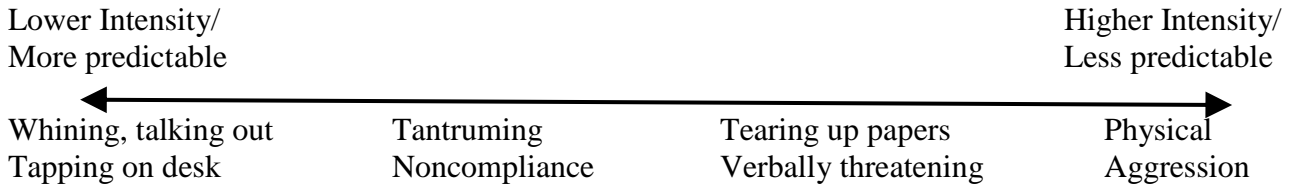

Student _____ Date _____

School _____

Worksheet Completed By _____

Students who commonly escalate behavior often exhibit a predictable series of behaviors that can signal more severe behaviors. Complete the escalation continuum below for the target student, identifying behaviors according to intensity level and the extent that the behaviors are likely to precede more intense behaviors for the identified student.

Example of an Escalation Continuum for a hypothetical student

Escalating Student Behavior

Stage	Description of Behavior	Staff Response
Crisis
Higher Intensity - less predictable
Increased Frequency of Lower Intensity Behaviors
Lower Intensity - more predictable
Off Task - Minor Acting Out Behaviors
On Task - No Acting Out Behaviors
